Following is the text part of the message:

Gary,

Permission granted, Well done!

Just don´t forget to include a link to my web site in your description www.treetog.com

Kind regards,
Ren

the internet. This email is to respectfully request your permission to upload a HoverDesk theme and eFx skin I created using and manipulating your Attacker images. A screenshot of this theme is attached for your review. You would, of course, be given full credit for your work if permission is granted.
